Appeal of Citizens Protection Act of 1998

As you might know, the Citizens Protection Act of 1998 was passed by Congress to stop the abuse by prosecutors who are more interested in their political careers than in the Supreme Court case of Berger v. United States:

As you might be aware, the prosecutor in this case has changed his tune numerous times to try to find a way to win this case. Instead of seeking justice, he is seeking a conviction. It was my duty to file a complaint under the Citizens Protection Act of 1998 so all parties would be aware we have a runaway prosecutor.

I provided a copy of that complaint to the court to notify the court that the US Attorney has a direct conflict of interest.
